

District 2 Spotlight

On Tuesday March 24th, residents of Newburg got an update on the progress being made on the new Newburg Library. The $1.9 million facility is set to open sometime in July. It has been a dream of many in the Newburg in an effort led by Councilwoman Barbara Shanklin. Students from surrounding school were on hand for the event. The 8,000 square foot facility will have 32 computers for children. It is the first new library constructed since 1969

More photographs from a wonderful day from the Friends of the Louisville Public Library

